SPEECH AND DRAMA COPYRIGHT NOTES

(i) Making a photocopy for use in an eisteddfod

If a competitor makes a photocopy of a work or edition that is still protected by copyright, they will need to seek direct permission from the copyright owner of the material. In most cases this will be the publisher of the work. Contact CAL (the Copyright Agency Limited) for further advice

(ii) Performing extracts of literary or dramatic works in an eisteddfod or competition. If a competitor 'performs' an extract of a reasonable length of a literary or dramatic work, such as an excerpt from a poem, novel or play, then the performance of this extract will not require the permission of the copyright owner, and is covered by an exception in the Copyright Act

COPYRIGHT ACT 1968 - SECT 45

Reading or recitation in public or for a broadcast

The reading or recitation in public, or the inclusion in a sound broadcast or television broadcast of a reading or recitation, of an extract of reasonable length from a published literary or dramatic work, or from an adaptation of such a work, does not constitute an infringement of the copyright in the work if a sufficient acknowledgement of the work is made

COPYRIGHT DECLARATION for SPEECH & DRAMA USE ONLY is to be filled in and presented to Booking In staff on the day of competition. (Available on the Forms page of the website)
